

SafeTrack DV LLC Privacy Policy

Last Updated: June 2026

1. Introduction

Welcome to SafeTrack DV LLC ("SafeTrack"). SafeTrack provides medication recall monitoring services that help users receive alerts when medications they track may be affected by FDA recalls or safety notices. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and protect your information.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect your name, email address, account information, subscription details, medications you track, and website usage information.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use information to provide services, send recall alerts, process subscriptions, improve our services, and comply with legal obligations.

4. FDA Recall Monitoring

SafeTrack provides informational recall monitoring only and does not provide medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

5. Email Communications

We may send recall alerts, account notifications, billing notices, and service-related emails.

6. Information Sharing

We do not sell personal information. We may share information with service providers such as Stripe, SMTP2GO, hosting providers, and analytics providers.

7. Data Security

We use commercially reasonable safeguards including encryption, secure password storage, and access controls.

8. Data Retention

We retain information as necessary to operate the service and comply with legal requirements.

9. Your Rights

You may request access, correction, deletion, or export of your personal information where permitted by law.

10. California Privacy Rights

California residents may have additional privacy rights under applicable law.

11. Children's Privacy

SafeTrack is not intended for children under 13 years old.

12. Third-Party Services

We may link to third-party services and are not responsible for their privacy practices.

13. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time.
